

Bio-Electric Quantum Health Coalition Inc.

(Private Membership Operating Agreement)

As part of joining our private non-profit group, please read and check each box below indicating your acceptance and agreement with each statement.

Declaration of Purpose – The Bio-Electric Quantum Health Coalition Inc. is a private club non-profit 501 C(7) association with health and well-being educational intent, wherein association members recognize health truths and the right of the individual to choose, use, provide or acquire information, and learn about techniques, modalities, testing, protocols, food quality, gardening and farming methods, and vitamin, mineral, and nutritional supplementation for the actual or perceived well-being of the individual: A person has the right to learn and explore health concepts not approved through a traditional mainstream educational system.

The members of this coalition adhere to fundamental truths, as stated in the United States Declaration of Independence, that all people are created equal and that those elected to govern are limited in power and subservient to the will of the people. Members recognize that the enumeration of certain rights as may be espoused through their political documents shall not deny or disparage other rights retained as outlined in the 9th Amendment of the Constitution.

Coalition members recognize individually and collectively that they retain all rights of a free people to engage in all manners of discourse and trade and to form a voluntary private association of like-minded individuals to encourage the realization and enjoyment of their inalienable rights to life, liberty, and property – especially as these rights relate to concepts and practices of health and wellness.

Additionally, Coalition members hold and recognize that it is an educated population leading to an understanding to exercise rights of freedom, and best choose their own path for health, wellness and abundant living; and that as educated people they become informed to best defend their rights to such choices when infringed. It is to this noble purpose that this Coalition exists and engenders its volition.

Membership – General membership into the Bio-Electric Quantum Health Coalition is open to anyone invited or seeking understanding of the health truths and concepts taught within, and is required by individuals seeking care under Professional members offering services and teachings of the concepts and practices taught to coalition members. General membership entitles one to full privileges and benefits offered by the Coalition to general members, including ability to participate in educational retreats and to have access to the Health by the Numbers™ computer educational program.

Professional and Special membership is open to individuals who have been invited by executive, professional or special members and entitles one to full privileges and benefits offered by the Coalition to General members, along with being recognized as a provider of an educational and/or therapeutic service acknowledged by the Coalition as potentially beneficial for health or wellness. Professional or special members also serve as the entry and interface point for General members to club associated activities, such as may be experienced through member activity and educational exchange, private sessions, local events, educational retreats, or the Coalition's private online portal and Health by the Numbers™ computer program.

Professional or special members are most often health care practitioners, wellness coaches, personal trainers, lifestyle educators, or bio-dynamic high brix farmers who have taken Coalition approved training programs in various fields that align with the Bio-Electric teaching of the Coalition, and who are specialists in specific areas of health or wellness. It is recognized by all Members that no Member stand above another, and no member can ever assume or play an advisory role to another, but instead a shared educational role is assumed. Professional or special membership does not denote that there is ever a doctor/patient, counselor/counselee, therapist/client, or agent/principal relationship when engaged in Association activity. Executive Members are Founding Members or those to whom Executive Membership has been extended by the Coalition Board of Directors.

Privacy Agreement - Members who participate in Coalition activities through private sessions, educational retreats, workshops, events, or electronic media are likely privy to proprietary trade secret information held as contractual private property rights of the Bio-Electric Quantum Health Coalition, as well as potentially other member private information shared during educational retreats or online forums. Non-disclosure agreements may apply to such information, or other information whether in print or internet based, and disclosure of such information in any public forum to any individual working in a public capacity, or to any individual who is not a

